IYEA 2022 Online Education Announcement

Dear colleagues,

It is with great pleasure that we invite you to the International Digestive Endoscopy Network 2022 (IDEN 2022) Hybrid Conference from June 10-11, 2022, at Grand Walkerhill Hotel in Seoul, Korea.

The IYEA (International Young Endoscopist Awards) program is intended to promote technical advancement and collaboration among international societies of GI endoscopy. This program has been held annually for young doctors in Asia since 2014, and young endoscopists have been participating in this program to strengthen their expertise and acquire basic and practical skills.

We will have three days of live workshops, and IYEA participants will have the opportunity to give oral presentations at the IDEN conference. The three-day workshops will mainly focus on basic and practical skills for beginners in the field, with live discussion to ask your questions and talk about the experiences and know-how with Korean experts and global participants.

Applications will be available from the end of February on the website, so take the opportunity to join IYEA 2022!
